EXOS AEROSPACE — SSLC OPTION B: ACQUISITION OFFER SUMMARY

October 7, 2026 · Exos Aerospace Systems & Technologies, Inc.

1. What SSLC Holders Receive

The Exos offer delivers liquidity, relief, and upside across four dimensions — without requiring any additional capital call from current SSLC shareholders.

- Cash at close $2,510,000 delivered to SSLC at acquisition close.
- Debt relief All SSLC debts paid at face value at close, including the Microcosm loan and Wertz notes (est. ~$500K, to be verified in QuickBooks). Jim Wertz's personal loans are made whole at closing.
- Prepaid-work relief $984,062 in already-billed and deposited work is assumed by Exos and funded to completion (Exos working-capital cost: $300K–$700K). SSLC customers receive uninterrupted delivery. No SSLC shareholder funds this obligation.
- No further capital calls Once closed, SSLC's standalone cash drain stops. Shareholders stop funding a working-capital-negative entity.
- Earn-out — IM tank revenue 5% of Intuitive Machines tank revenue for 3 years, capped at $300K/year (up to $900K total). Tied to SSLC's existing firm IM demand.
- Earn-out — Exos stock 0.3%–0.7% of Exos fully diluted shares post-RTO listing (est. $600K–$2.1M at a $200M–$300M listing; $250M minimum MEV per Ainigma/FNEX mandate).
- Exos shares + Y5 hold value Stock earn-out is tradeable post-12-month lockup. Held to FY31 at a 16× EV/EBITDA multiple on the Exos plan (~$1.63B EV), a 0.5% grant (~0.35% after ~30% assumed dilution) is worth ~$5.7M (range $3.4M –$8.0M), ~4.5× its ~$1.25M value at listing. Management assumptions.
- IM program continuity No delivery interruption to Intuitive Machines; Exos-SSLC entity continues the contract, preserving SSLC's strongest commercial relationship.

2. Why the Growth Trajectory Requires Exos Capital

The bottleneck is not the technology or the IM demand — it is working capital. SSLC's most recent quarter (FY27 Q1) came in at $713K in revenue. Hitting $5M for FY27 requires averaging $1.43M per quarter in Q2–Q4 — exactly 2.0× that pace — starting immediately. That doubling is not achievable on SSLC's current $198K cash balance.

Standalone constraints (SSLC's own numbers):

- Cash position $198K at October 2, 2026 — roughly one month of operating burn.
- Prepaid-work gap $300K–$700K needed just to finish $984K already billed or deposited — before SSLC can collect on any new work.
- Operating history FY26 operating loss: −$416K. No self-funding path to production scale.
- He-tank rework Rev3 GHe tank 4,400 psi proof issue unresolved (MC #3056). Remediation cost ~$175K to COPV ($300K gap). Resolves cleanly as intercompany under Exos.
- No capex capacity Production-scale equipment and headcount additions are not fundable from SSLC's cash position. Growth is capped at current run-rate without outside capital.

The With-vs-Without comparison, year-by-year CAGR figures, and cumulative revenue gap are in the model spreadsheet: EXOS_SSLC_OptionB_Acquisition_Model_2026-10-07.xlsx, sheet 'With vs Without Exos Capital'.
